IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR CLIENTS

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE (non-consumer insurance contracts)

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to tell the underwriter of anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect their decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until they agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract. You do not need to tell the underwriter anything that:

- reduces the risk to be insured or that is of common knowledge.
- the underwriter knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know.
- the underwriter has waived your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell the insurer something

If you do not tell the underwriter anything you are required to, they may cancel your contract or reduce the amount they will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell the underwriter is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

DUTY TO TAKE REASONABLE CARE NOT TO MAKE A MISREPRESENTATION (consumer insurance contracts)

You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (ICA) to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer (your duty). Your duty applies only in respect of your policy that is a consumer insurance contract, which is a term defined in the ICA. This notice includes information you have previously told us that is relevant to your policy, which we passed on to the insurer. The insurer requires you to contact us to tell us if this information is incorrect, or if it has changed. If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, the insurer will take this to mean that there is no change. To ensure you meet your duty, when you contact us to advise of any information that is incorrect or has changed, the updated information you give us must be truthful, accurate and complete. If you fail to meet your duty, the insurer may be able to cancel your contract or reduce the amount it will pay if you make a claim, or both. If your failure is fraudulent, the insurer may be able to refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

THIRD PARTY INTERESTS

Insurance policies will only provide cover for your interest in the property insured and does not cover the interest of any third parties unless you have informed us of them in writing and they are noted on the policy.

CLAIMS OCCURRING PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT

Your attention is drawn to the fact that your policies do not provide indemnity in respect of events that occurred PRIOR to commencement of the contract.

AVERAGE / CO-INSURANCE

Some policies contain an Average clause. This means that if you insure for less than the full value of the property, your claim may be reduced in proportion to the amount of the under-insurance. These clauses are also called "Co-Insurance" clauses. If you are in any doubt about whether and how Average/Co-Insurance clauses apply to your insurances, please contact your Insurance Broker for assistance.

POLICY CANCELLATION (retention of brokerage and fees)

If a cover is cancelled before expiry of the period of insurance, we reserve the right to refund to you only the net return premium we received from the underwriter, and not refund any part of the brokerage or fees we receive for arranging the cover. A broker service fee may be charged to process the cancellation. The impact of the above on you is that any refund you receive for the mid-term cancellation of your policy will usually be significantly less than a pro rata calculation would produce and in extreme cases may involve you having to make an additional final payment even though the policy has been cancelled. Therefore prior to cancelling a policy and replacing it with another cover we strongly recommend that you discuss your situation with us so that we can advise the exact extent and impact of the early cancellation provisions mentioned above.
